

INFORMATION SHARING REPORT

January 22, 2018

Congratulations:

- Zoning Official Lisa Hannon passed the Instrument Flight Rules (IFR) pilot check ride on January 15, 2018. Congratulations on this exciting accomplishment.

Presentations:

- City Council Members, City Manager, Paralegal/Assistant to the City Manager and Public Works Administrative Specialist presented a condensed version of the Citizen's Academy to twenty seniors at Charlotte High School. Topics covered were the roles within a Council/Manager form of government, City electoral process, program of services offered by the City organization and opportunities for future employment.
- Punta Gorda Police Department's Corporal Kleiver provided a tour of the police department to an area retired men's group.
- Chief Pam Davis police and Lieutenant Justice Devout gave a presentation that was very well received by the Board and residents in attendance at Monday's January 14th Seminole Lakes POA board meeting. All in attendance heard an update on the police operations and progress made by the police department in 2018. The Punta Gorda Police Department also provided a pamphlet on scams that will be very useful to resident to avoid scams.

- Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Festivities – At the 13th Annual MLK Community Breakfast, three local residents were recognized. Lorah Steiner, former Charlotte County Visitors Bureau Director, received the George Brown Humanitarian Award. Punta Gorda residents Roy and Eunice Wiley received the Lt Charles Bailey Sprit of Achievement Award. Council Member Cummings provided welcoming remarks. Mayor Prafke, Vice Mayor Matthews, Council Members Carey and Wein, City Manager Kunik and Police Chief Davis and Lieutenant Davoult were in attendance. In addition, Mayor Prafke, Vice Mayor Matthews, Council Members Carey and Cummings, Police Chief Davis, Fire Operations Chief Gibbs, members of the Police Department, Public Works and Utilities participated in the 26th Annual MLK Parade. City Manager Kunik served as the Parade's Grand Marshall and received the MLK service award.